

The Bournemouth School of English

The Bournemouth School of English is an independent English language school located in the heart of Bournemouth.

Founded in 1985, our school prides itself on offering a personal and tailor-made approach to learning English.

Our school directors, Mark (Principal) and Emma (Director of Studies), who took over the school in 2002, have a hands-on approach to ensure that we provide only the highest standard of education within a safe, familiar, comfortable environment.

We are a British Council accredited school and a member of EnglishUK. The Bournemouth School of English is also a registered MAX6 Centre of Excellence™.

“It is the family atmosphere that makes The Bournemouth School of English so different from other schools, with all the staff committed to making your time here a positive one.”

- Matt (Welfare Officer & Teacher)

Why choose our school?

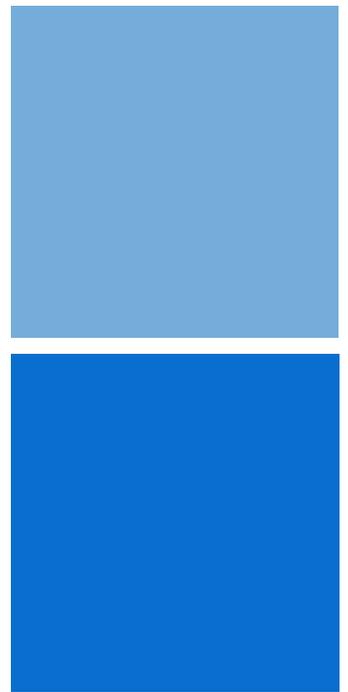

Our students are individuals, not numbers.

We have a maximum of 130 students so that we can focus on your individual needs and get to know each student personally. We are proud of our friendly yet professional atmosphere where our students feel relaxed and comfortable.

We offer courses that are perfect for students looking for flexibility whilst studying, as we give you the option to choose exactly how many hours you study a week.

Our teachers are friendly and approachable. The students have regular tutorials where they can talk one-to-one with their teacher to discuss their progress. The average class size is 8 students, to ensure that you receive the personal attention you deserve.

What really makes us stand-out from other schools is our diverse mix of students. The proportion of students from any one nationality rarely exceeds 10%, so you always have plenty of opportunities to practise your English.
